

2018 Writing Prize

REGULATIONS

Purpose

To support undergraduate and postgraduate studies in law which encompass the wider objectives of AWLA.

Who Can Apply?

All undergraduate law students (including LLB and LLB (Hons)) at the University of Auckland and Auckland University of Technology

Value

$1,000 - payment will be made in a manner and on such conditions as the Auckland Women Lawyers' Association ("AWLA") in its sole discretion thinks fit.

Decision Makers

The 2018 Writing Prize ("Scholarship") is administered by the AWLA through a selection committee ("Selection Committee"). The Selection Committee will consist of at least three members of the AWLA Committee, including at least one of the President or Vice President of the AWLA.

Requirements and Selection Criteria

The applicant must submit a 3,000 word essay on a topic relating to the intersection of the law and issues of concern to women, which complies with the New Zealand Law Style Guide. The word count is a maximum/limit with a 20% discount below. The essay must be accompanied by a covering letter and a 250 word abstract.

The applicant must also provide a completed application form and signed declaration statement.

In selecting the applicant, the Selection Committee will take into consideration (inter alia) the essay's alignment with the topic.

Suspension or Termination

The Selection Committee may at any time before payment suspend or terminate the payment of the Scholarship if it determines (in its sole discretion) that the successful candidate has failed to comply with any of the terms and conditions on which the Scholarship was awarded.

Awarding of Scholarship

The Scholarship will be awarded at an AWLA function to be held in late 2018. The successful applicant should be able to attend this function. The AWLA is under no obligation to award the scholarship in the event the Selection Committee does not find a suitable applicant.

Amendment to Regulations

The Selection Committee may, if it thinks fit, relax or modify the application of any of these regulations in any special circumstances, or in order to avoid substantial hardship to any applicant.

How Do Students Apply?

The application form and relevant information is available for printing from the AWLA website at www.awla.org.nz or by emailing awla.scholarship@gmail.com. Applications must be received by midnight Wednesday 1 August 2018.
